FIGHT CARNIVAL TALK. SPOKANE, WASH., February 23.—Frank W. Smith, of Spokane, baseball player, who raised a fund of $100,000 among mining operators and business men in Spokane and the Coeur d'Alene valley, in which the country is rich in coal, is now on his way to Los Angeles to raise a fund of $100,000 to build a new stadium for the fight between him and Nelson, McFarland or Umholtz, who is now at Hot Springs, and his players will report during the last week in that month. The indications are that the team will be much stronger than last season.

Before starting for Portland, where he will pass a day, going thence to Southern California and Nevada to inspect several mining properties, Smith said: "The $100,000 fund for the big fight will go, though it may be we will have better success in raising the fund. The plan is to bring Jeffries and Johnson or another man in the class together, or match Burns and Johnson for the heavyweight championship. That is the purpose of my visit to Los Angeles. The purpose of from $100,000 to $50,000 ought to be an incentive for cash. If the deal is made the purpose for a fight between Gans and Nelson, McFarland or Umholtz, will be $20,000. Similar amounts being offered for battles between Atwell and Moran and Ketchel and Papke. The battles probably will be pulled off within a couple of hours' ride of Spokane next summer or fall."

Regarding the canceling of the fight tournament last year, Smith said: "The hundred thousand fund for the battles was practically subscribed by mine owners and business men in Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho. The mine sites were seized and we were in negotiations with representative men in the three classes. When Richard M. Barnhart, prosecuting attorney of Spokane county, claimed on the 10th, declaring he would call upon Governor Mead to order out the State militia in the event of a fight. This, of course, was a damper and resulted in calling everything off for a time; but now those financing the tournament believe these are a way out, and if the matches can be made, the fights will be pulled off before the end of the year."

Spencer Signs With Danville Team. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, D. C., February 23.—Bryant Spencer, who hails from Orange, Va., has signed a contract to play ball with Danville, Va., team for the coming season.

Spencer is a young man, twenty-one years of age, and a very well developed and a promising player. He is a catcher of exceptional ability, fast on his feet, and can sling the ball good and hard.

He formerly caught for the Fredericksburg College team during the term of 1901-02, where he attracted considerable attention with stick and glove. In 1902 he was the individual star at Woodberry Forest High School, capturing the batting crown.

Spencer is a valuable acquisition to the Danville management, and the team will have in him a brilliant career in baseball circles.

ATHLETICS IN FIFTH PLACE

Manager Jennings Says Detroit Will Win American League Pennant. DETROIT, MICH., February 23.—Hugh Jennings, manager of the Tigers, today gave out his idea of how the American League teams will stand at the end of the coming season. Jennings, of course, picks the Tigers to grab the flag again. Next he placed the Yankees. Here is the order in which the teams must run to beat out Jennings' idea.

1. Detroit—Having had the benefit of playing together and with little or no changes, the Tigers will surely be fighting for first place again.

2. New York—Griffith has the fastest base-running team in the country and his team is a powerful factor in the race.

3. Cleveland—The Naps are way up in the race and make trouble when least expected.

4. Chicago—It will be a hard task to keep the White Sox from being contenders. The Chicago team, I believe, will be very strong.

5. Athletics—The loss of Waddell will not hurt the Athletics, and this team is sure to prove a troublesome factor at all times.

6. St. Louis—This team is an enigma to me. May be the biggest surprise in the league, and then again may prove a bitter disappointment.

7. Boston—This club is hopelessly out of the race.

8. Washington—The Nationals are more hopelessly out of it than Boston.

RANDOLPH-MACON SCHEDULE.

Regular Practice Will Start Next Week With Whole Squad Out. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHLAND, VA., February 23.—With the new season of sport just a little ahead, things are beginning to look business-like on the grounds and the talents of pitchers and catchers take place and many of the contestants for positions on the ball team go out every afternoon to supply up their interests in the game.

Manager Hellweg has arranged the following schedule:

March 24th, Wake Forest College, at Wake Forest, N. C.

March 25th, Agricultural and Mechanical College at Raleigh, N. C.

March 26th, Trinity College, at Durham, N. C.

March 27th, University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill, N. C.

April 1st, Maryland Agricultural College, at Ashland, Va.

April 6th, Richmond College, at Petersburg, Va.

April 10th, William and Mary College, at Williamsburg, Va.

April 21st, Virginia Theological Seminary, at Ashland, Va.

April 28th, Richmond College, at Ashland, Va.

April 29th, Agricultural and Mechanical College, at Ashland, Va.

May 4th, Randolph-Macon Academy (Bedford), at Ashland, Va.

May 11th, Richmond College, at Richmond, Va.

Arrangements for several other games are not yet completed and a Northern trip is contemplated.

BENTLEY NOT TRADED. Kirkpatrick Will Be With Lynchburg Again—Bruce Grover Signed. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., February 23.—Manager Grim, of the local baseball team, announces that Kirkpatrick, who finished last season at third with the Blue Sox, will be traded to the team again this year. The Richmond team will not avail itself of the right to recall this player for work this year.

Manager Grim has signed Bruce Grover, of New York, for first-base, but is still endeavoring to secure a more seasoned fielder. Holt, who was on first last year, will go behind the bat. He will also pat left-handed this year instead of on the other side of the plate.

The team has purchased the release of Catcher Coyle, of Toledo, who played last year in the New York State League. The release of Coyle, who was reported last year to be traded to the team, will return here about March 10th, and his players will report during the last week in that month. The indications are that the team will be much stronger than last season.
